

Tribute band South Carolina concert series 'most patriotic event' ever, promoter says

ANDERSON, S.C. —

Music lovers in South Carolina devoted to beloved bands like Journey, Fleetwood Mac and Chicago, take note: the Legends Concert Series is coming to the Upstate.

The series is scheduled on four separate dates at the William A. Floyd Amphitheater, located at 3027 Martin Luther King Jr Blvd, in Anderson SC.

Each date features different tribute bands already on national tours playing sold-out shows across the country, Florida concert promoter Michael Randall said.

The 2024 Legends Series schedule includes:

- July 12 – Three tribute bands: Styx - Pat Benatar - Journey

- Aug. 9 – Three tribute bands: Fleetwood Mac - The Cars - Tom Petty
- Sept. 13 – Two tribute bands: Elton John - Billy Joel
- Oct. 11 – Two tribute bands: Chicago - Eagles

“I only book tribute bands that emulate and play the hits from Rock n’ Roll and Country Music Hall of Fame artists making them ‘Legends’ and our purpose is to honor the True Legends: First Responders, Law Enforcement, Military and Veterans,” Randall said in a release. “This is the most Patriotic event you will ever attend.”

Randall and his fiancé, who has family in Myrtle Beach, Columbia, and Greenville, recently visited the Upstate, and decided to make it their second home. “We love it here and we know the people of the Upstate will love the Legend’s Concert Series,” Randall said.
